Challenging text? Vocabulary? Comprehension? Close reading? Understanding the literacy standards for reading and writing, so I know what students need to learn and I need to teach? Come join Debbie and learn about a FREE on-line module, which covers the topics listed above.

Each participant will receive a binder with the module materials, which includes videos (I.e. Dr. Timothy Shanahan, Anita Archer), handouts, and activities.

Debbie will present the comprehension unit, which includes how to plan, teach, and begin to assess the reading and writing literacy standards. In addition, participants will receive materials and directions for accessing the other on-line modules. All FREE
